DO NOT PLAY LIST

CEREMONY MUSIC

Please confirm for us, ONE of the following music options

- iPod Music Director (friend or family member that will press play) Name:
You are responsible for organizing your iPod and ceremony music.
- South Sound Events employed for ceremony Invoice Paid:
Please fill in CEREMONY MUSIC below. We can take care of your pre-ceremony playlist if you like.
- Acoustic musician Who have you confirmed?
Confirm with the musicians that they have music to fill in any breaks they are taking

Do you have a pre-ceremony playlist? Perhaps create one on Spotify, and ask your Celebrant to have it downloaded and playing as your guests arrive. You could use ours "Ceremony Music Ideas" just check that your aisle song etc isn't in there. Or copy over a few songs and make your own playlist.

| | ARTIST | SONG |
|--|----------------|---------------------------|
| AISLE PROCESSIONAL | Ellie Goulding | How long will I love you |
| SIGNING OF REGISTRY – 2 SONGS | Novo Amor | Carry you |
| (always takes just longer than 1 song) | Haley Reinhart | Cant help falling in love |
| AISLE RECESSIONAL | Mr Probz | Waves |
| And a few songs for congratulations | Kina | Get you the moon |
| | Billie Eilish | Ocean Eyes |
| | Karen Souza | kids |

* The first aisle recessional song needs to have little to no lead in, or intro to the song.

Picture that the song is starting as you are announced as husband and wife, and as you walk back up the aisle – we want the song to be punchy, energetic and happy straight away!
